Company Size

More experience, more professionalism and greater capabilities than the small residential contractors are capable of.

Unmatched customer service and more attention to detail than the large commercial companies can provide.

Integrity. Loyalty. Professionalism. Quality. Production. Safety.

McRae Enterprises, LLC boasts a safety record better than industry standards, with an E-Mod Rating of .97. Depending on the project scope, varying amounts of work is performed in-house. Other work is performed by trusted and experienced sub-contractors. Night & weekend work is frequently employed, as a method for minimizing operational disruptions.

Hello,

I appreciate you looking at our marketing materials. I believe that if you are responsible for one, or multiple physical locations, you will find the value in building a relationship with McRae Enterprises. Whether it's maintaining your physical plant, or adding square footage or new locations, McRae Enterprises is sure to impress.
